INSTRUCTIONS.

A.O. 36.—Foot Guards—Re-transfer of Reservists to the Colours and Extension of Service.

The following amendments will be made in Army Order 1 of 1896:—

Gratuity on re-transfer to the Colours.

1. The following will be substituted for the second sentence of paragraph 6, the words "be granted deferred pay from the date of their transfer to the reserve" being omitted:—

"Those who have passed to the reserve after 7 years' colour service, and who received their deferred pay up to the date of transfer to the reserve, will, on discharge at the termination of their engagement, receive a gratuity of 20*l.* in lieu of any deferred pay to which they would then become entitled."

Bounty on Extension of Service.

2. The following will be substituted for paragraph 14, the condition as to completing 3 years' service with the colours being omitted:—

14. Men now serving in the Foot Guards who extend to complete 7 years with the colours, and those enlisted for 7 years who extend to 12 years with the colours, will receive a bounty of 2*l.* Such men will be liable to serve for the extra year if abroad at the termination of their 7 or 12 years' service."

A.O. 37.—Hospital Equipment—Schedules.

1. The Schedules of Hospital Equipment have been revised, and copies will be issued to all concerned.

2. The proportion of stores laid down has been calculated in order to meet general requirements. In some instances, however, where the construction or local requirements of a hospital do not justify the issue of all the equipment in the schedule, the officer in charge of barracks will not issue articles which, after consultation with the medical officer, are considered unnecessary.

3. These schedules do not apply to issues of equipment specially authorised for particular hospitals.

4. The following Army Orders are cancelled:—

Army Orders 292 (and the schedules promulgated therewith), 352, and 426 of 1889; Army Orders 242 and 402 of 1890; Army Order 154 of 1894.

A.O. 38.—Instructions for Armourers, 1897.

Revised Instructions for armourers in the care, repair, browning, &c., of small-arms, bayonet and sword-scabbards, machine guns, and "parapet" carriages have been approved, and copies will be issued to all concerned. Army Order 196 of 1892 (and the instructions issued therewith). Army Orders 585 and 139 of 1895, and Army Order 13 of 1896 are cancelled.

A.O. 39.—Railway Fares for Soldiers, &c., on Furlough.

In Army Order 149 of 1895, relative to the form of application for railway tickets at a single ordinary 3rd class fare for the double journey, the following will be substituted for the last sentence of paragraph 2:—

"It is to be given only to soldiers serving on army engagements, whether in their units, or on the permanent staff of the Militia, Yeomanry, or Volunteers. It is not to be given to barrack labourers or other civilians."

A.O. 40.—School of Range Finding—Report for 1897.

The annual report on the work of the School of Range Finding for the year 1897 is issued herewith to all concerned.

ALLOWANCE REGULATIONS.

A.O. 41.—Troop Horses for Cavalry Officers.

The following will be substituted for paragraph 613*a* of the Regulations for the Allowances of the Army:—

613*a*. At home stations a cavalry officer on joining the army may be allowed the use of one troop horse as a charger on payment of 10*l.* per annum.

613*a*. At such stations abroad as may from time to time be determined by the Secretary of State, a cavalry officer serving with his regiment may be allowed the use of one troop horse as a charger, on payment at a yearly rate to be also fixed by the Secretary of State.

613*c*. Each troop horse used under the provisions of paragraphs 613*a* and 613*a* will be regarded for the time being as one of the chargers which the officer is entitled to have foraged at the public expense. It will remain the property of the public, and will be fed and shod at the public expense.

Commanding officers will be held responsible that the horse is neither hunted nor driven, and that it is used solely for military purposes.

Should the troop horse become non-effective it will be replaced from the ranks on a certificate from the commanding officer of the regiment that it has not, in any way, been misused.

Each officer to whom a troop horse is issued will make payments on this account quarterly to the station paymaster at home, or the district paymaster abroad, the credit in whose accounts will be supported by a statement showing the period during which the officer has had the use of the horse.
